

App. No. 10/707,728

In the Claims:

1-19 (cancelled)

20. (original) A putting training device comprising: a level component attached by a hinge to a shaft attachment means, said putter shaft attachment has an adjustment means to adjust the angle between said level component and said shaft attachment means where said adjustment means is a drive gear on the shaft attachment means which moves a tongue which is attached to said level component
21. (new) A putting training device as in claim 20 in which said level component is a level chamber with an air bubble within said chamber.
22. (new) A putting training device as in claim 21 in which said level chamber has a top housing and a bottom housing.
23. (new) A putting training device as in claim 20 in which said level component has an image on its face.